

You're king, and you reign over all

Alto;

Over the invisible, over the visible, over all powers and kingdoms!

Over the invisible, over the visible, over all powers and kingdoms!

Over the invisible, over the visible, over all powers and kingdoms!

You're king! And you reign over all

Soprano:

Jesus, all glory goes to you

Jesus, to you all praise is due

Jesus, we choose to worship you

You're king! And you reign over all

Men:

You're king! And you reign over all things

You're king! And you reign over all

You're king! And you reign over all things

You're king! And you reign over all

Notes:

Sopranos and altos – do not take a breath prior to “you're king!”

Plan for concert 21/11/24: Altos start, sopranos join, then the men.
